

VALDEZ POLICE DEPARTMENT
P.O. BOX 307
VALDEZ, ALASKA 99686
907-835-4560 (PHONE)
907-834-3412 (FAX)

The Valdez Police Department is accepting applications for the position of Police Officer. Applications must be received by March 12th to be considered for our upcoming testing date of April 3rd – 4th, 2010.

The Valdez Police Department offers a competitive pay, incentive, and benefit package to include:

- Beginning base salary of $58,000 (not including overtime and incentives)
- Lateral/Experience pay higher, DOE
- Lateral pay base up to $65,000 per year base (not including OT and incentives)
- Overtime availability
- 200 hours of personal leave time accrual a year (beginning)
- 12-hr work schedule
- Week on/Week off tour of duty (Patrol)
- Night shift pay differential that equates to about 4% of base pay (1800-0600 shift)
- Field Training Officer pay
- Take home car during tour of duty
- Excellent health benefits with 90% coverage
- Participation in the State of Alaska PERS Peace Officer retirement program
- City sponsored 457 deferral plan
- City sponsored 401(b) plan in lieu of social security taxes
- Advanced training opportunities to include: Northwest Traffic Accident Investigator, FBI EOD certification, Advanced Investigations, SERT Level I training, K9, and more.

This position is a non-FSLA exempt, sworn law enforcement position that will work a non-typical work schedule. This position answers to a Police Sergeant and performs law enforcement duties as assigned and articulated in the job description for Police Officer. Advanced training is made available and expected of successful applicants. All Police Officers must meet the minimum requirements set forth for Peace Officers by the Alaska Police Standards Council and must be able to attain certification from that agency.

For more information or for an application packet, visit the Valdez Police Department website at www.ci.valdez.ak.us/police or contact Shannon Williams at swilliams@ci.valdez.ak.us or call 907-834-3414 or Sgt. Dan Mott at dmott@ci.valdez.ak.us or call 907-835-4560.